‘Cabin Fever Festival’ is Cure for Winter Blues in Jemez Springs, NM on Feb. 24

JEMEZ SPRINGS, NM—Jemez Springs, New Mexico will breathe life into winter once again with the annual Cabin Fever Festival on Saturday, Feb. 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The family friendly, free event will feature professional chainsaw carving from Sandia Bear Company, live music, arts and crafts, King Arthur Flour Pie and Cobbler Baking Contest and a Dog Costume Contest.

Courtesy of Walatowa Timber Industries who is donating timber to artists, Sandia Bear Co. will transform wood into art with live demonstrations throughout the event. The one of a kind wood carvings will be judged, and can be purchased during a live auction at 3 p.m.

The King Arthur Flour Pie and Cobbler Baking Contest will feature pies and cobblers from entrants, which will be judged. First place winner will receive $100 in cash; second place will receive a $75 gift card to spend at King Arthur’s Flour and the third place winner will receive a $50 gift card. Slices will be sold after judging.

Winners of the Dog Costume Contest will win: $100 for first place; $75 for second place; and $50 for third place. Dogs entering the contest must be vaccinated and need to be leashed. Winners will be announced around noon, shortly after judging takes place.

For complete rules and to enter the Dog Costume Contest or King Arthur Flour Pie and Cobbler Baking, email prdiretor@jemezsprings.org for an entry form.

Along with arts and crafts and food vendors, the Train Wreck Blues Band will bring their unique sound to the stage from 1-3 p.m. with the Spiral Pilots playing from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Visitors can compete for cash prizes in both the Cross Cut Saw Competition and Chicken Poop Bingo, where chickens ultimately decide who will win cash prizes.

The Cabin Fever Festival is free, however, some games such as Chicken Poop Bingo and Cross Cut Saw Competition have nominal fees.

Cabin Fever sponsors who helped make the event possible include: Walatowa Timber Industries, King Arthur Flour, Jemez Valley Credit Union, Laughing Lizard Inn, and the Jemez Springs Bath House.

The Cabin Fever Festival is located at Jemez Springs Plaza, 80 Jemez Springs Plaza.
