Cheap Buys, Priceless Fall Color Views to be Had at 15th Annual ‘Trail Sale,’ Oct. 20 & 21

JEMEZ SPRINGS, NM—The Jemez Mountain Trail Sale (“Trail Sale”) will celebrate 15 years as the longest yard sale - and most scenic - in New Mexico on Oct. 20 and 21. The Trail Sale takes place from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on both days and encompasses over 26 miles of new and used items, from San Ysidro to La Cueva, NM.

Located along the Jemez Mountain National Scenic Byway (NM-4), the Jemez Valley is typically at the peak of fall colors the third week of October, during the Trail Sale. Leaf peepers can expect to see yellow daisies and golden snakeweed along NM-4 along with orange and gold-hued Cottonwood trees trailing the Jemez River.

Items for sale at the Trail Sale may range from pueblo pottery and jewelry to books, appliances and much more. The Trail Sale is also a great fundraising opportunity for non-profit organizations.

Sellers are asked to register in advance at a number of available “clusters” along the route. Sellers must provide their own tables. Most cluster locations are free depending on location. A list of cluster locations is available at Facebook/JemezMountainTrailSale.

Drivers must obey speed limits and watch for sightseers and pedestrians along NM-4. As a reminder, it is illegal to set up along highway right of ways, Forest Service property, fishing accesses and private property, without the owner’s permission.
